

WINCHESTER READS
2011

Celebrating Our 10th Year

GOOD TO A FAULT

An evening with the author

Marina Endicott

What does it mean to be a good Samaritan? Clara Purdy takes a family into her home and wrestles with the dilemma of doing good and being good.

Tuesday, November 1, 7:30 pm
McCall Middle School, 458 Main Street

Additional event:

Dr. Scott Seider, education professor at Boston University talks about Shelter: Where Harvard Meets the Homeless, the story of the only student-run shelter in the nation.

Tuesday, October 18, 7:30 pm
Jenks Center, 109 Skillings Road

Winchester Public Library · 80 Washington Street, Winchester, MA 01890 · 781.721.7171 · www.winpublib.org

Sponsored by The John & Mary Murphy Educational Foundation

Additional support from BookEnds, Friends of the Winchester Public Library, Multicultural Network, Winchester Public Schools, & enthusiastic volunteers.